A gift subscription to the Answers magazine was recently given to the Heritage Library by Mr. & Mrs. Kelly Schultz.

The creation-based worldview magazine, published quarterly by Answers in Genesis (AiG), will be available for checkout, like other materials. Each family-friendly issue, usually 80+ pages long, is packed with relevant articles, science articles, both technical and non-technical, stunning photos, and graphics that reveal the latest creation science news while equipping you for the culture war in society today.

New Books and DVD's that have been added include:
